5. Claims 4 and 7 have been amended.
6. Claims 1-14 are pending.
7. Claims 1-14 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

8. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The cited prior art taken alone or in combination fail to teach, in combination with the other claimed limitations, replacing an instruction at the address indicated by the original return-pointer value with a breakpoint; and when the breakpoint is encountered upon return of control at the original return-pointer value, obtaining the first return-pointer value associated with the original return-pointer value, and transferring control to an instruction at the address referenced by the first return-pointer value as substantially recited in independent claims 1, 11 and 14.

The closest cited prior arts, the combination of Shaughnessy (U.S. 6,026,235) and Shaylor (U.S. 6,760,907) teaches a method for instrumentation of selected functions in an executable program. However, the combination of Shaughnessy (U.S. 6,026,235) and Shaylor (U.S. 6,760,907) fails to teach replacing an instruction at the address indicated by the original return-pointer value with a breakpoint; and when the breakpoint is encountered upon return of control at the original return-pointer value, obtaining the first return-pointer value associated with the original return-pointer value, and transferring control to an instruction at the address referenced by the first return-pointer value as substantially recited in independent claims 1, 11 and 14; and as pointed out by the applicant's arguments on pg. 7, par. 3 and par. 4.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
